Subject: Suggestions for 2014-2016 Draft History-Social Science Framework from Mira Mesa High School 10th Grade Teachers

From World History Teachers at Mira Mesa High School

Questions:

Is it really expected to start off at 1750?

Are we expected to do this exact sequencing?

Why is Rights, Religion, and Identity on line 1423 at the end of the document? Should that not be included with earlier topics?

Comments:

With the wide variety of student abilities and scheduling conflicts it is difficult to line-up English with Social Studies.

Add:

Reformation and Renaissance helps with Fundamentals of Democracy (7th grade was 3 years prior) Old Imperialism, students do not remember how the Americas were conquered (yet again 3 years since age of exploration, asian interactions, and columbian exchange)

Geography:

Needs to include more fundamentals
